Central Texas Wolf Pack holds 4th annual Min-Camp

The Central Texas Wolf Pack public safety football team will begin preparations for the 2010 National Public Safety Football League season by holding its 4th annual "Wolf Pack Fall Min-Camp" every Saturday from September 26, 2009 through October 31, 2009.

Returning players from last year and rookies just joining the team will be present to try and make an impression on the coaching staff to earn a position on the team as we make a run at the NPSFL National Championship in 2010.

- 9:00am-11:30am Saturday, September 26th (Agility & Technique)
- 9:00am-11:00am Saturday, October 3rd (Technique, Install and Execution)
- 9:00am-11:00am Saturday, October 10th (Technique, Install and Execution)
- 9:00am-11:00am Saturday, October 17th (Technique, Install and Execution)
- 9:00am-11:00am Saturday, October 24th (Technique, Install and Execution)
- 9:00am-11:00am Saturday, October 31st (Technique, Scrimmage)

Proceeds raised by the football team throughout the year help support local teams and organizations that offer organized youth athletics.

The Central Texas Wolf Pack Public Safety football team was established in 2004 and consists of law enforcement, corrections officers, firefighters and emergency medical technicians. For more information visit the team's Web site at: www.npsfl.com and click on the Central Texas Wolf Pack logo.
